The article summarizes and analyzes the constitutional guarantees of protection of rights and freedoms of a person and a citizen from corruption displays.

The real protection of human rights is the most acute problems of the Ukrainian reality. In recent years, this issue is the subject of serious scientific analysis. Constitutional desire to develop and strengthen the democratic State it is impossible to implement without approval in the public consciousness and social practice of rights and freedoms, however pinning them guarantees. The State is obliged to proactive in ensuring human rights, in creating material, organizational, social, political and other conditions for the fullest use of the human rights and freedoms.

In present conditions of the development of society, a person may not always freely implement their guaranteed by the Constitution of Ukraine, the rights and freedoms of person and citizen. In particular, on the way of realization of economic rights and freedoms is quite often a person something with such negative phenomenon as corruption.

Effective countering any antisocial displays not least depends on correct understanding, the sources of these phenomenon. One of them is the corruption, the displays of which can be fatal to the State and society as a whole the effects, create significant obstacles for the realization of the rights and freedoms of person and citizen.

Particular attention is paid to constitutional guarantees aimed at protecting human rights and freedoms from corruption. Convinced that an effective law enforcement system is able to overcome these obstacles. Organizational guarantees expressed in the activity of State bodies, public organizations, officials and citizens subject to the legal regime of rights and freedoms and the use of drugs it.

Protection acts a legal guarantee, which find their expression, is the first to establish the legal regime, namely in the order of their legitimate implementation; secondly, in defining the legal content of the organizational – the legal means to ensure the legal regime.

In general, robust constitutional protection of the rights of man and of the citizen of corruption depends on the efficiency of performance of all officials properly their responsibilities and prevent the violation of the constitutional law of Ukraine.
