IMPORTANCE OF ENGLISH IN THE WORK OF ATTORNEY

I am sure in order to have a good job one should know foreign languages. The most widespread languages in the world are Chinese, Spanish, English and some others. Today English is the leading used in business, science and culture.

English is one of the six official and working languages of the United Nations. It is the second working language in the European Community. In my opinion, when the whole world is rapidly developing English skills for such a profession as a lawyer I need.

The labor market is crowded and if you have knowledge of a foreign language, it will be one of the advantages of the interview and further growth trucks.

Our country is an active subject of international law and foreign language skills can work easily with other foreigners.

I think each of these students dreams of paying and perspective job. For example, citizens of Ukraine are in 3rd place in the number of appeals to the European Court of Human Rights and claims there are submitted only in English. Now many people are studying foreign languages in any possible way. Groups of foreign language study organized in industrial plants, offices of large companies, educational institutions, research institutes.

Good knowledge of English - a requirement without which a lawyer can't build a successful career. Recently, more and more young graduates increase their skills studying abroad, where they get legal knowledge of high level and free possession foreign languages, which is very important.

It is very important for everybody to make a right choice of profession. There are a lot of honorable professions today. Still, it is difficult for young people to choose. I changed my planes several times about what want to be. I have decided yet that I want to be a lawyer. It is important to understand that law is not only necessary just because there are bad people in the world. If we were all as good as we ought to be, laws would still be necessary. If we never lied, never took anything that didn't belong to us, never omitted to do anything that we ought to do and never did anything that we ought not to do, we should still require a set of rules of behavior. In other words these are laws. They enable us to live in any kind of a state.

Every lawyer is required to protect the law. The legal profession is very popular and highly paid today. He is responsible to use laws to help people live safely and comfortably. Still, it is not all an easy work to do.

A lawyer gives you pieces of advice on legal problems or gives reasons for defending people in the court. Today a good lawyer is of great demand in our country.

If you want be a good attorney, you must know English. Even in very large law firms need specialists with knowledge of a foreign language, or even two. English career plan - that higher wages and foreign trips. Besides professionals with knowledge of a foreign language is the ability to move to a foreign company branch. When the lawyer speaks English, it is both to improve their knowledge and acquaintance with the sources of international law.

Also, foreign language helps to share their experiences to help young lawyers - one of the important principles for each lawyer. A lawyer must be fully developed man, read a lot, have an extensive vocabulary and if is possible, own languages. For representation in the European Court he needs to know French or English.

When I look at my friends who work in the legal field, I noticed a feature of almost every one of them additionally learn English.(for example such as popular Speak up school)

It is impossible to learn English without practice.

Every good lawyer should understand it.

Learn English at a basic level is not too difficult, given the new learning technologies, and more interesting.

Knowledge of English life, anyway, solid good!

In conclusion, I would like to note that the question of studying English or not is just your choice.

If you want to succeed in their careers, then you do not need to think, let alone should begin to learn English not only in theory, but most importantly in practice.
