

Vyacheslav Matvienko – Researcher of Department of Special Equipment and Operational Activities of National Academy of Internal Affairs

The Interaction of Operational and Investigative Unit Detection and Fixing of Corruption Offenses in the Public Sector

In this article recovered features of cooperation between operational and searching units and others law enforcement, financial, regulatory authorities or international organizations during detection and fixation of corruption crimes in a public sector and ways of its improvement.

Author is given a proper organization of cooperation between operational and searching units during criminal proceedings which is a one of the ways to improve efficiency of decision tasks like protecting person, society and country from crimes, protection of rights, liberty and interests of members of this proceedings, quickly, full and impartial investigation and trial that everyone who has committed a crime was prosecuted as guilty according to his guilty, any innocent wasn't accused and convicted.

Argued that the interaction between operational units and other units during the investigation, detection and fixation of corruption offenses in the public sector can demonstrate itself in such forms:

- a) studying of case materials and determining the expediency, presence of grounds for the event, its type; b) help in the preparation of documents for the organization of the event; c) Organisation of events with the assistance of workers of others operational units and their special technical devices; d) assisting in the preparation of documents for the activities and results of undercovered investigative (detective) Action; i) participate in the study materials obtained through operational-search tools; f) agreeing in the uestion about using of materials in the criminal proceedings and their declassification.

The proposed algorithm o cooperation between operational and searching units of defense economy during fixation and detection corruption crimes I a public sector.

Keywords: cooperation; operational units; investigation; controlling agencies; budget.