

Зубенко В. О. - викладач кафедри
гуманітарних та загально-правових дисциплін факультету № 2
Національної академії внутрішніх
справ

LEARNING ENGLISH CAN CHANGE OUR LIFE FOR THE BETTER

English plays an important role in our everyday life. There is great utility of English in modern world. So, the use of English should be continued along other regional languages.

It is the massive means of communication. Is there a strong argument roomates says that English will not give any benefit? Learning to speak English well may be the best way to improve our life. It seems all the people in the world have agreed to use English to talk to each other. About 1,500,000,000 people in the world speak English. While another 1,000,000,000 are still learning English. If we can communicate in English, we can contact people from all over the world. We can talk about our ideas and opinions on Internet discussion groups. We can chat with other interesting people to learn about their life and culture. If we can communicate in English, we can travel more easily.

English is spoken in more than 100 countries. If we lost, we can ask directions or ask for help. Who knows, English will save our life somewhere someday. That is why we should the make every effort possible to find somebody to speak with. English is the most used language. When we come in touch with the people with different languages, they commonly use English to communicate. Almost 65 percent of people in the world use English regularly. Everyone realizes the importance of English and try to learn this language because he has no excuse to avoid himself from learning English, learning English is very important and has many advantages, such as improvement of our knowledge, more job opportunities, and good interact with local people when we travel to other countries.

As we all know that English is secondary language for us so it is not very easy to master the language people find it difficult because of too many rules in grammar and it is hard to memorize the vocabulary! But no problem will come if we really have the will to study and understand it. English can be learnt by two ways inside the class outside the class. Learning English language requires good environment, practicing and motivation. Teachers play a very important role for studying English to share their valuable experiences. Classrooms give us a good environment to learn English as we can communicate with our classmates and check our knowledge level. In class the competition among the students motivate the students for studying and practicing more.

In today's globalised marketplace, companies are increasingly working internationally. Exposure to foreign legal systems and legislative processes is becoming commonplace and international lawyers are now required to communicate successfully in English using the appropriate legal language and terminology. Due to the international nature of legal work, a lawyer's ability to understand and communicate complicated legal processes and legislation in English is an invaluable skill providing a competitive advantage when operating in an international environment. Due to the rapid expansion of international relations it has become extremely important to provide various intellectual services not only in Ukrainian but in the English language also. This applies to law firms that have to provide consultancy services not only to Ukrainianspeaking customers, but to English-speakers as well. Therefore, the experts in law firms have to understand and speak English for lawyers at upper intermediate level at least.

Unlike conversational language, English for lawyers has its own characteristics that are hard to understand, even for a professional lawyer who already speaks simple English in everyday life. English for lawyers has specific terminology that makes it a "language within a language". So, in order to communicate with English-speaking customers or consult them in the field of international law, the practitioner must learn the terminology of English for lawyers. Acting professionally is impossible without this knowledge.

The study of the terminology of English for lawyers online has become the best choice for those lawyers and law firms that are determined to succeed in this field and profession. The advantages of this modern method are obvious. Firstly the opportunity to learn English for lawyers online means you will be studying at a convenient time of day and in a place convenient for you.

Secondly, while learning English for lawyers, you are communicating with British lawyers who are fluent in all the subtleties of legal terminology and the specifics of English for lawyers. Also, thanks to online training with British practitioners, you will be able to understand even the most complicated legal documents written in English.

Knowing English increases your chances of getting a good job in a multinational company within your home country or of finding work abroad.